6. CANCELLATION, WITHDRAWAL & REFUND POLICY

If a course is cancelled by UPI in which a student is enrolled, alternative arrangements will be made to the best of UPI's ability to minimise the adverse consequences for those students and to ensure that no student is prevented from completing the course. If UPI is unable to find alternative arrangements, it will refund the student for the portion of the course not yet completed. Any refund or fees made shall be paid, wherever possible, to the person or organisation that made the original payment, or as otherwise directed by the student. Students who withdraw from the course within the cooling-off period (7 days) will be entitled to a full refund. In the event of early withdrawal from the course, beyond the cooling-off period (7 days), no refunds will be given. Students who are expelled from a course by UPI or its delivery providers for violation of any obligation as explained in the Student Handbook, will not be entitled to a refund. Students who fail to receive a student visa after completing a UPI pathway program, for any reason, will not be entitled to a refund. This policy does not apply to the refund policies, terms and conditions of any other education provider other than UPI. Rules and policies, including the refund policy, are subject to change and it is the student's responsibility to ensure they review these rules and policies during their period of study as the most current rules are applied and these may differ from time to time from the time of enrolment. These rules and policy documents are freely available to students at any time through UPI's website or upon request.
